

The Great British Proms Spectacular

Castle Howard
Saturday 18th August 2012

Castle Howard's Great British Proms Spectacular, held on Saturday 18th August, is one of the most popular outdoor classical events in the UK – and it's not difficult to see why! A stunning location; brilliant music and spectacular fireworks all combine to create an unrivalled evening of magical entertainment. This year's concert promises to be bigger and better than before, with the English National Orchestra performing works by many of the world's greatest composers and star guests from the classical world performing. As conductor Jae Alexander leads through popular classics, movie themes and all the traditional favourites associated with The Last Night of The Proms. With Charlie Brown and his spitfire performing in the sky this classical rave will have you up on your feet, then as darkness falls heads turn again as thousands of fireworks soar over Castle Howard.
